

Thea Classic Award - Disneyland, California

Opened in 1955, Disneyland, Anaheim, California, created a new genre of entertainment environment, immersing guests immediately in immaculately presented story-driven worlds. For fifty years, Disneyland has offered families fun, familiarity, challenge, entertainment, and leading-edge experiences with a style and approach that is often imitated but rarely achieved. Disneyland is a worldwide icon and an exemplar for the entire industry, and the Thea Classic Award honors the park and the thousands of creative people who have conceived, designed and built the park for their leadership role in defining contemporary theme park design and continuing to expand the guest experience.
